PART III

ARTICLES

Articles

6.—(1) Articles shall be drawn up in such form as may be prescribed by the Board from time to time.

(2) The Board may direct any modification or amendment to the articles if the Board deems such modification or amendment to be necessary to comply with the provisions of the Ordinance or in the interest of the person under articleship.

Requirements for articleship

7. Before entering into articleship, a graduate surveyor shall produce evidence that he has obtained a degree from a scheduled university, and that he has the eligibility to be registered as a land surveyor.

Qualification to provide articleship

8.—(1) No land surveyor shall offer articleship to any person unless he has been registered as a land surveyor for more than 3 years at the time when he accepts such a person for articleship.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), a land surveyor who is registered under section 29(b) of the Ordinance may offer articleship immediately upon registration as a land surveyor, provided he has been practising for more than three years prior to the coming into force of the Ordinance.

Articles to be forwarded to Secretary

9.—(1) The articles duly completed shall, within three months from the date of commencement of the articleship specified therein, be forwarded to the Secretary together with—

(a) evidence that the applicant for articleship has obtained the qualifications stipulated in rule 7;

(b) evidence of the date and place of his birth; and

(c) the fee for registration of articles as prescribed in the Fifth Schedule.

(2) A person under articleship may apply to the Board, in such form as may be prescribed by the Board, to transfer his articleship to another land surveyor together with—

(a) a certificate from the land surveyor who offers him the original articleship stating the nature of the work that the person has undertaken under his supervision and the extent to which the stipulation in the articles have been complied with; and

(b) a fee for transfer as stipulated in the Fifth Schedule.

(3) The Board, if satisfied that the person has satisfied all the conditions for transfer of articles as provided in these Rules, shall approve the transfer of articleship on such terms as the Board may deem fit to impose.

Refusal to register articles

10. The Board shall refuse to register any articles—

(a) if such articles do not sufficiently allow for adequate professional instruction or practical training of the graduate in the profession of land surveying; or

(b) if the provisions of rule 8 or 9 have not been complied with;
or

(c) if the land surveyor who is a party thereto already has two articulated graduates under articleship.

Annulment of articles

11. The Board may annul the registration of any articles, if such registration has been obtained by means of fraud, false representation or the concealment of any material fact, or was granted by mistake.

Graduate under articles

12.—(1) Every graduate shall serve under articleship for a total period of two years in Sarawak.

(2) During this period of articleship he shall have at least twelve months spent in cadastral land survey work and not less than six months in actual computation and plan drawing provided that all such work and activities must be acceptable to the Board.

Evidence of experience

13.—(1) A graduate shall keep a record of all the surveys undertaken during the currency of his articleship.

(2) The Board, during the period of his articleship may require any graduate to produce such evidence as it deems necessary to prove that the graduate is receiving instruction and gaining experience in land surveying of a nature satisfactory to the Board.

(3) When the Board is of the opinion that a graduate has not received sufficient training or gained sufficient experience in land surveying during the period of his articleship, the Board may require such graduate to obtain such additional training and experience as it deems necessary.

PART IVEXAMINATION*Conduct of examinations

14.—(1) The Board shall conduct examinations of candidates for Certificates of Competency not less than once within every twelve calendar months.

(2) For the conduct of the examinations, the Board shall appoint persons with the relevant qualifications and experience in the practice or field of land surveying to be examiners, and such other persons of good character, to be supervisors in the conduct of such examinations.

Eligibility to be candidates for examinations

15.—(1) Only graduates who have completed their articleships or who have undergone such period of articleship as the Board may determine may apply to sit for the examinations and shall complete the prescribed form and submit the same to the Secretary with:

(a) a certified true copy of certificate in the form prescribed in the Fourth Schedule from the land surveyor under whom he is seeking his articleship; and

(b) an examination fee in the form of cash or cheque made payable to the Board, in the amount prescribed in the Fifth Schedule.

(2) The Board may decline to allow any person who is not eligible from sitting any examination which he has applied to sit for, from sitting for such examination.

Date of examination

16. The Board shall notify the candidate at least one month prior to the date of commencement of the examination.

Examination number

17. Every candidate for examination shall be allocated a distinguishing number, with which he shall mark each page of the workings, plans and papers submitted by him but he shall not otherwise reveal his identity thereon.

Ethical conduct

18. The supervisor may refuse to allow a candidate to continue with the examination if, in his opinion, the conduct of such candidate during the process of the examination is deemed to be inconsistent with generally accepted ethical standards or if the candidate is found to have cheated or attempted to cheat during such examination.

Examination subjects

19. The subjects of examination shall be:

(a) Land tenure—

The evolution, principles and practice of land tenure and detailed knowledge of tenure systems in Sarawak.

(b) Laws and regulations—

Laws and regulations relating to land and land surveying in Sarawak.

Oral and practical examinations, etc.

20.—(1) The candidate shall take the oral and practical examinations as set by the Board.

(2) A candidate shall, in addition, submit to the Board his original field notes, relevant calculations and plans drawn therefrom of:

(a) the survey of a rural area of not less than ten hectares, two of the boundaries of which shall coincide with and be reinstated from previous surveys: the survey shall include the laying out of a road reserve with parallel sides;

(b) an acquisition survey for road reserve or bund and drain reserve of at least 400 metres in length affecting a minimum of 5 underlying lots;

(c) the survey of a town lot with buildings on or near the boundaries;

(d) a proposed road, railway or drainage work not less than 400 m in length, with the requisite longitudinal and cross sections thereof; and

(e) a topographical survey of not less than ten hectares on a scale of 1 : 1000 with 2 m contours.

(3) Each plan referred to in subrule (2) shall bear the following certificate signed by the candidate:

"I hereby certify that this survey was made by me personally between the day of 20, and the day of 20, and that this plan and the accompanying field notes are entirely my own work."

Signature

(4) Further, the candidate shall submit, on A1 sheets, the following plans and in compliance with the relevant regulations showing:

(a) (i) a scheme for a new town, developed on country land of which at least 30 percent is undulating land, to accommodate an ultimate population of 10,000 to 20,000 people; or

(ii) a scheme for the re-planning and extension of an existing town of 10,000 to 20,000 population to accommodate an additional population of 5,000, the extension being on land of which at least 30 percent is undulating.

(iii) The plans referred to in paragraph (4)(a)(i) and (4)(a)(ii) shall include—

(A) a 1:10000 outline zoning plan, showing main land uses and main roading system;

(B) a detailed layout of a shopping, civic and community centre; and

(C) a detailed layout of a portion of proposed industrial area; or as alternative to paragraph (4)(a)(i) and (4)(a)(ii).

(b) A scheme of any type of rural development, showing the arterial and sub-divisional roading, rural pattern, water supply, full amenities and facilities, etc., considered necessary for the accommodation and support of at least 20 of the single family rural units usually associated with the chosen type of development, the minimum area dealt with to be not less than two hundred hectares.

(c) (i) Each plan submitted by candidates under this rule must bear a signed certificate from the candidate that such plan is entirely his own work and not copied from any published matter.

(ii) Any one of the plans submitted by a candidate must be accompanied by an explanatory memorandum of not less than one thousand words.

Order of sitting for examinations

21. No candidate shall be permitted to take the oral and practical examinations until he has passed each of the written subjects numbered in rule 19(a) to (b) and has furnished a certificate in the form of the Fourth Schedule that he is competent to effect surveys on his own responsibility.

Additional requirements

22. The candidate shall, if so required, provide to the Board such additional information in regard to his professional service, field notes, and plans and produce evidence that:

(a) during his professional service in the field he has complied with the requirements of rules 12 and 13; and

(b) he has obtained such additional training and experience required by the Board in accordance with rule 13(3).

Examination results

23.—(1) In order to pass in any subject a candidate shall obtain not less than 60 per centum of the marks for each subject.

(2) Any candidate who passes in a written subject shall be credited with a pass in such written subject. Such credit shall be valid up to 3 years after the period of articleship. Unless he has passed in all written subjects before the completion of the three years specified he shall lose all credits. He may enter for examination again, but shall be required to pass in all written subjects within three years after the first date on which he again sits.

(3) Any candidate who has received a notification from the Secretary advising him that he has failed in any subject at the examination may, within one month from the date of that notification, appeal to the Board to review his paper in that subject, and the Board, upon the receipt of the prescribed fee, shall allow such a review. In the event of the candidate succeeding in his appeal, the Board shall refund the fee so paid, to him.

Certificate of Competency

24. A Certificate of Competency in the form and to the effect of the First Schedule shall be issued to each candidate who has been credited with a pass in all examinations prescribed in these Rules.

Conduct of surveying assistants

31. All surveying assistants shall, in so far as they are applicable to them, comply and observe the code of professional behaviour stipulated in rule 30 for land surveyors, and shall—

(a) comply with the provisions of the Ordinance and these Rules which are applicable to them; and

(b) not undertake or represent himself to any person that he is a registered land surveyor and is able to undertake work and responsibilities of a land surveyor.

Disciplinary procedure

32.—(1) Any complaint against a land surveyor or surveying assistant or any other person for breach of any provisions of the Ordinance, or its Rules or has committed misconduct or activities detrimental to the land surveying profession or the interests of any one who engages or has engaged the services of a land surveyor, shall be addressed to the Secretary.

(2) The Secretary shall refer the complaint to an Investigation Committee appointed under section 25(1)(a) of the Ordinance.

(3) The Investigation Committee, if it considers that the complaint is prima facie bona fide or is supported by cogent evidence, issue a letter to the person complained against (the "accused person") requiring him to show cause why disciplinary action should not be taken against him.

(4) In the event that the Investigation Committee, after having studied and considered the contents of the accused person's reply to the show cause letter, is of the view that the same does not exculpate him of the complaints made against him, refer the complaint to the Disciplinary Committee.

(5) The Disciplinary Committee shall, upon receipt of the reference from the Investigation Committee frame such charges as may be disclosed from the investigation of the Investigation Committee and forward the same to the accused person and summon him to appear before the Disciplinary Committee for a hearing.

(6) In the event that the Disciplinary Committee finds the accused person guilty of the charge made against him, the Disciplinary Committee may impose any of the penalties in section 25(2) of the Ordinance.

(7) Any decision of the Disciplinary Committee shall be final subject to such appeal against the same being made in accordance with section 26 of the Ordinance.

Reinstatement

33. Where the registration of a land surveyor or surveying assistant has been struck off the Register, he shall not be reinstated unless the Disciplinary Committee has determined that such reinstatement should be made in the interests of the land surveying profession and such reinstatement would not be against public interest.

Quorum for Disciplinary Committee

34.—(1) Any two members shall constitute a quorum for any sitting of the Disciplinary Committee.

(2) All decision of the Disciplinary Committee may be by majority and in the event of equality of votes, the Chairman of the Disciplinary Committee shall have a second or casting vote.

(3) The Secretary of the Board or any person duly authorized by him and approved by the Board, shall be the Secretary of the Disciplinary Committee and shall keep records of all proceedings, deliberations and decisions.

Procedure

35. The Board may by Order make procedures regulating all proceedings before the Disciplinary Committee and a copy of such Order shall be made available free of charge to an accused person or his representative upon request.

Decision

36. All decisions of the Disciplinary Committee shall be hand delivered or sent by registered mail to an accused person and the complainant shall be notified of the outcome of any action taken by the Disciplinary Committee on his complaint.
